FORGOTBall Game For Prosperity.*Small Boys Stole Savings Bank.

Henry Norrance and Lloyd Fisher, two small South Akron boys, who were recently "turned loose" by Probate court, after they had played truant, run away from town and been captured in Mansfield, are in trouble again, and this time they have implicated two brothers of the Fisher boy.

Recently the boys, George W. Fisher, Lloyd Fisher, Earl Fisher and Norrance wanted to play ball, and they knew just where there was a ball and bat they might use, at the residence of D. J. Hummel, 204 Falor st. They went there, got the ball and bat, and also took a small savings bank which they espied, and a dime savings bank which was also near. These they took into the woods and opened, extracting the contents, $8.50. In view of their new prosperity the boys forgot the ball game and decided to make a journey to Garberton, which they did, and spent all the money. They were arrested and the case was heard in Police court Friday morning, and the boys were bound over to Probate court, with a recommendation that they be sent to a Reform school.

The boys all tell different stories of the stealing, and each one accuses the other of having done the actual stealing of the bank.

It was a very tearful aggregation which accompanied Sheriff Kelly to the county jail, where they will await the action of Judge Anderson. Most of the trouble is blamed on the association of Fisher boys with Henry Norrance, who has been in several escapades before, and on one occasion ran away from home and remained nine months. After having taken this money he tried to persuade the other boy to accompany him and "go on the bum."

OLD TIMETopper Was In Great Luck.*Escaped With Fine of $1 and Costs.*A Prisoner Who Had Been Entirely Forgotten.

"I was a sailor for many years. Give the old man a chance, and I'll walk right out of town," said James McDermott, arrested for intoxication. Every one looked up at once, for this was a very familiar "spiel," and the voice also had been heard in this court room within a short time. "I just came to town yesterday. I walked in and I'll walk right out if you let me go," said Mr. McDermott, glibly. Acting Mayor Campbell was affected by the man's well simulated air of misery to the extent that he fined him only $1 and costs. McDermott has been in this court many times on the charge of intoxication, and always tells the same story.

Mike Gammon and George Murphy, two young men from Kent, came to Akron late last night and were arrested for intoxication immediately after they had eaten a light lunch. Both denied that they were intoxicated, in Police court, and Officer Duffy, who made the arrest said: "They did not give a satisfactory account of themselves, and I was not going to run my legs off keeping them in sight, so I run them in." Both were fined $2 and costs.

Harry Piffen and Harry Robinson, arrested for clogging to moving trains, were each given a half hour to get out of town, with a suspended 30 days' sentence to help them along.

After all the cases had been called it was found that a lonesome looking individual was still sitting on the prisoners' bench. No charge had been made against him, and no one seemed to know why he was there. Officer Josiah Campbell happened along, and as he had made the arrest he suggested that a charge of intoxication be made. This was done. The prisoner, Edward Deem, pleaded guilty and was fined $3 and costs.

SEYBOLDAnd Wildes Said to be Leading.

It is expected that Mayor Doyle will return from his "vacation" Saturday evening, and that the appointments of City Commissioners to succeed Messrs. McMillen and McFarland will be made so Council can approve them Monday night.

Judge Anderson has been busy during the Mayor's absence, it is said, and has practically arranged things so that all the Mayor will have to do will be to add his signature to the appointments. However, the public has no definite information by which it can forecast the appointments, as the Judge has declined to discuss the situation for the public's benefit.

It is said that Editor Louis Seybold, of the Germania, and Mr. Wm. Wildes are leaders among the Republican candidates. Attorney L. D. Seward is also among the Republican candidates. Among the Democratic candidates are Messrs. John C. Weber, John Cook and John Sharp. They have all been working quietly and the friends of each are predicting success for them.

LOVER'S RETREAT.Romantic Name of New East Barberton Street.

(Special Correspondence.)
Barberton, May 16.—Said Mr. Wm. A. Johnston, to a Democrat reporter, Thursday: "That new East Barberton allotment of mine is going to be one of the finest in the city. Some of the prettiest spots in Barberton are right over there and there are some picturesque bits of scenery as well as places of historic interest. We expect to have a square over there which will be known as Bridegroom's Row or Lover's Retreat. I have not yet decided which. The reason for the romantic name is that a number of young married people are figuring on purchasing a square together and building homes."

TALK ABOUT WOMAN'S RIGHTS!

New York, May 16.—Justice Marean, of Brooklyn, has declared that under the law, a woman may strike her husband once on the head with a poker and not be adjudged guilty of treating him so cruelly as to warrant a decree of separation. The plaintiff in the case sued for a divorce, but could establish proof of only one instance in which his wife beat him and the justice held this insufficient.
